Atkinson-Baker Court Reporters www.depo.com

```
IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON
2
                   IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF KING
3
4
    PATRICK JONES, individually,
5
                    Plaintiff,
6
                                          ) No. 16-2-22028-2SEA
                vs.
7
   BELLEVUE SCHOOL DISTRICT 405, 14A
    public school district; WASHINGTON
8
    INTERSCHOLASTIC ACTIVITIES
    ASSOCIATION, a nonprofit corporation;)
9
   KINGCO CONFERENCE, a nonprofit corporation; and SEA-KING DISTRICT 2 )
10
    OF THE WIAA, a nonprofit corporation;)
    YARMUTH & WILDSON, PLLC, a Washington)
11
    Professional Limited Liability
    Company, BOB WESTINGHOUSE and 12
    CARL BLACKSTONE, in their individual ) capacities,
13
                    Defendants.
                                          )
14
15
                Deposition Upon Oral Examination of 16
                           CARL BLACKSTONE
17
                   Taken at 18
                       Bellevue, Washington
19
                       Wednesday, April 19, 2017
20
21
22
    Atkinson-Baker, Inc.
    Court Reporters
23
    www.depo.com
24
    REPORTED BY: Mindy L. Suurs, CSR No. 2195
   File No. AB03B71
```

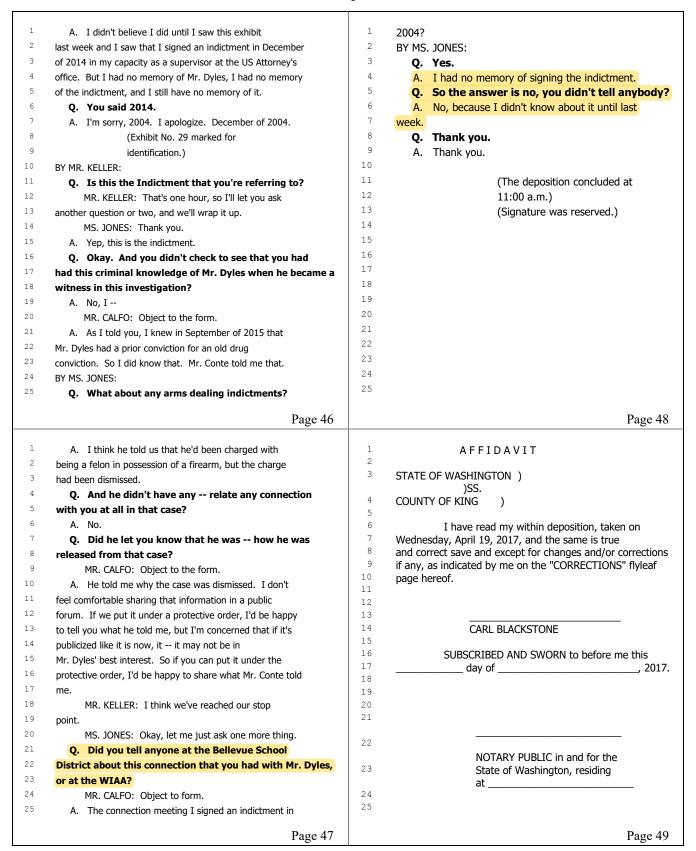

Atkinson-Baker Court Reporters www.depo.com

1	Shawn Flood report.	requirement. The schools had an obligation to be palms up,
2	He told us that was living with	tell KingCo everything they know, and let KingCo make a
3	Marissa Spooner-LeDuff. That was corroborated by Marissa	³ decision.
4	Spooner-LeDuff. He told us that Coach Goncharoff had paid	4 So we felt that that was a violation of the
5	him money on two occasions. That was corroborated by the	self-report rule. So that issue was an issue for us to
6	Bellevue School District self-report, and Coach Goncharoff	6 look at.
7	himself admitted to giving money to Mr. Dyles. There was a	Q. But how was the $1,200 stuffed in an envelope two
8	dispute as to the amount of the money, but he admitted that	8 times corroborated?
9	he paid him, I think he said $300.	⁹ A. It was corroborated by Butch Goncharoff said he
10	Q. But wasn't the dispute didn't that dispute	paid the money, $300, and the father said it was 1,200. So
11	come down to Goncharoff said 300 and Dyles said like 1200	what was corroborated was that the coach paid money. If he
12	or something like that?	denied paying the money, that would have been a different
13	A. Correct.	story, but he paid the money.
14	Q. But how did you determine who was telling the	And we now see in the Shawn Flood second report,
15	truth with respect to that issue?	which was not given to us at the time, and in that report I
16	A. Well, the truth was he paid money, and that was	believe Goncharoff told Shawn Flood he didn't know how much
17	what was important to us. And what we were we didn't	money he had paid to Dyles. It was only six months later
18	know what the amount was we had reason to believe	when he was being interviewed by Jeff Lowell that he came
19	Mr. Dyles but the mere fact that the coach was paying	up with the $300 amount. I wish we'd known that.
20	money was corroborated by him. That was the important	Q. Okay. What else was corroborated?
21	piece of the puzzle.	A. The Mr. Dyles told us he received a $3,000
22	Q. But the $300 had already been punished by a	gift from Dan Cerrillo, who was an assistant coach. That
23	previous self-report after the Flood investigation by Coach	was corroborated by Mr. Cerrillo. He initially told the
24	Goncharoff and he had sat out two games, and so that wasn't	investigator, Shawn Flood, that the money was a gift, and
25	part of your investigation correct? because that had	then when he realized there was going to be a self-report,
	Page 42	Page 44
	1 age 42
1	already been
1 2	already been MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to
	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan."
2		 he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan."
2	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness	1 he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It 2 really was a loan." 3 So we found that the payment was corroborated and
2 3 4	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and
2 3 4 5	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was corroborated, and you didn't let him finish.	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from
2 3 4 5	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles.
2 3 4 5 6	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this
2 3 4 5 6 7 8	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted MR. CALFO: I just want to make sure it's clear	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this investigation?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was Dyles corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted MR. CALFO: I just want to make sure it's clear that he didn't finish.	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this investigation? A. The first time I met him was in September of
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was Dyles corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted MR. CALFO: I just want to make sure it's clear that he didn't finish. A. Yeah, I do have more things to stay about that.	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this investigation? A. The first time I met him was in September of 2015. I did not know him.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted MR. CALFO: I just want to make sure it's clear that he didn't finish. A. Yeah, I do have more things to stay about that. MS. JONES: Yeah, we'll get to all of that. I	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this investigation? A. The first time I met him was in September of 2015. I did not know him. Q. Did you know about any of his criminal history?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was Dyles corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted MR. CALFO: I just want to make sure it's clear that he didn't finish. A. Yeah, I do have more things to stay about that. MS. JONES: Yeah, we'll get to all of that. I just wanted to ask about that one	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this investigation? A. The first time I met him was in September of 2015. I did not know him. Q. Did you know about any of his criminal history? A. I learned about it at about that time.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was plus corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted MR. CALFO: I just want to make sure it's clear that he didn't finish. A. Yeah, I do have more things to stay about that. MS. JONES: Yeah, we'll get to all of that. I just wanted to ask about that one A. It was part of the investigation in the sense	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this investigation? A. The first time I met him was in September of 2015. I did not know him. Q. Did you know about any of his criminal history? A. I learned about it at about that time. Q. How did you know about his criminal history? A. I was told that by a former FBI agent who was a friend of Mr. Dyles.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted MR. CALFO: I just want to make sure it's clear that he didn't finish. A. Yeah, I do have more things to stay about that. MS. JONES: Yeah, we'll get to all of that. I just wanted to ask about that one A. It was part of the investigation in the sense that we felt Bellevue had failed to self-report the amount	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this investigation? A. The first time I met him was in September of 2015. I did not know him. Q. Did you know about any of his criminal history? A. I learned about it at about that time. Q. How did you know about his criminal history? A. I was told that by a former FBI agent who was a friend of Mr. Dyles. Q. Who?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted MR. CALFO: I just want to make sure it's clear that he didn't finish. A. Yeah, I do have more things to stay about that. MS. JONES: Yeah, we'll get to all of that. I just wanted to ask about that one A. It was part of the investigation in the sense that we felt Bellevue had failed to self-report the amount of money, we felt that when they did their initial	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this investigation? A. The first time I met him was in September of 2015. I did not know him. Q. Did you know about any of his criminal history? A. I learned about it at about that time. Q. How did you know about his criminal history? A. I was told that by a former FBI agent who was a friend of Mr. Dyles.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted MR. CALFO: I just want to make sure it's clear that he didn't finish. A. Yeah, I do have more things to stay about that. MS. JONES: Yeah, we'll get to all of that. I just wanted to ask about that one A. It was part of the investigation in the sense that we felt Bellevue had failed to self-report the amount of money, we felt that when they did their initial self-report in, I think it was June 2015, they only put in the report Coach Goncharoff's side of the story, and they only told the committee that Goncharoff said it was $300.	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this investigation? A. The first time I met him was in September of 2015. I did not know him. Q. Did you know about any of his criminal history? A. I learned about it at about that time. Q. How did you know about his criminal history? A. I was told that by a former FBI agent who was a friend of Mr. Dyles. Q. Who? A. Rich Conte. Q. Can you spell the last name?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted MR. CALFO: I just want to make sure it's clear that he didn't finish. A. Yeah, I do have more things to stay about that. MS. JONES: Yeah, we'll get to all of that. I just wanted to ask about that one A. It was part of the investigation in the sense that we felt Bellevue had failed to self-report the amount of money, we felt that when they did their initial self-report in, I think it was June 2015, they only put in the report Coach Goncharoff's side of the story, and they only told the committee that Goncharoff said it was $300. And we were of the view and I think KingCo	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this investigation? A. The first time I met him was in September of 2015. I did not know him. Q. Did you know about any of his criminal history? A. I learned about it at about that time. Q. How did you know about his criminal history? A. I was told that by a former FBI agent who was a friend of Mr. Dyles. Q. Who? A. Rich Conte. Q. Can you spell the last name? A. C-o-n-t-e.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted MR. CALFO: I just want to make sure it's clear that he didn't finish. A. Yeah, I do have more things to stay about that. MS. JONES: Yeah, we'll get to all of that. I just wanted to ask about that one A. It was part of the investigation in the sense that we felt Bellevue had failed to self-report the amount of money, we felt that when they did their initial self-report in, I think it was June 2015, they only put in the report Coach Goncharoff's side of the story, and they only told the committee that Goncharoff said it was $300. And we were of the view and I think KingCo agreed with us that it was significant the amount of	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this investigation? A. The first time I met him was in September of 2015. I did not know him. Q. Did you know about any of his criminal history? A. I learned about it at about that time. Q. How did you know about his criminal history? A. I was told that by a former FBI agent who was a friend of Mr. Dyles. Q. Who? A. Rich Conte. Q. Can you spell the last name? A. C-o-n-t-e. Q. And this person is a friend of Mr. Dyles?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted MR. CALFO: I just want to make sure it's clear that he didn't finish. A. Yeah, I do have more things to stay about that. MS. JONES: Yeah, we'll get to all of that. I just wanted to ask about that one A. It was part of the investigation in the sense that we felt Bellevue had failed to self-report the amount of money, we felt that when they did their initial self-report in, I think it was June 2015, they only put in the report Coach Goncharoff's side of the story, and they only told the committee that Goncharoff said it was $300. And we were of the view and I think KingCo agreed with us that it was significant the amount of money and that they should have been told that, by the way,	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this investigation? A. The first time I met him was in September of 2015. I did not know him. Q. Did you know about any of his criminal history? A. I learned about it at about that time. Q. How did you know about his criminal history? A. I was told that by a former FBI agent who was a friend of Mr. Dyles. Q. Who? A. Rich Conte. Q. Can you spell the last name? A. C-o-n-t-e. Q. And this person is a friend of Mr. Dyles? A. He'd known Mr. Dyles, he had been involved in the
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted MR. CALFO: I just want to make sure it's clear that he didn't finish. A. Yeah, I do have more things to stay about that. MS. JONES: Yeah, we'll get to all of that. I just wanted to ask about that one A. It was part of the investigation in the sense that we felt Bellevue had failed to self-report the amount of money, we felt that when they did their initial self-report in, I think it was June 2015, they only put in the report Coach Goncharoff's side of the story, and they only told the committee that Goncharoff said it was $300. And we were of the view and I think KingCo agreed with us that it was significant the amount of money and that they should have been told that, by the way, the father said he was paid on two occasions with money	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this investigation? A. The first time I met him was in September of 2015. I did not know him. Q. Did you know about any of his criminal history? A. I learned about it at about that time. Q. How did you know about his criminal history? A. I was told that by a former FBI agent who was a friend of Mr. Dyles. Q. Who? A. Rich Conte. Q. Can you spell the last name? A. C-o-n-t-e. Q. And this person is a friend of Mr. Dyles? A. He'd known Mr. Dyles, he had been involved in the prosecution of Mr. Dyles, and he told us about his criminal
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted MR. CALFO: I just want to make sure it's clear that he didn't finish. A. Yeah, I do have more things to stay about that. MS. JONES: Yeah, we'll get to all of that. I just wanted to ask about that one A. It was part of the investigation in the sense that we felt Bellevue had failed to self-report the amount of money, we felt that when they did their initial self-report in, I think it was June 2015, they only put in the report Coach Goncharoff's side of the story, and they only told the committee that Goncharoff said it was $300. And we were of the view and I think KingCo agreed with us that it was significant the amount of money and that they should have been told that, by the way, the father said he was paid on two occasions with money stuffed into an envelope to the tune of about $1,200 each	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this investigation? A. The first time I met him was in September of 2015. I did not know him. Q. Did you know about any of his criminal history? A. I learned about it at about that time. Q. How did you know about his criminal history? A. I was told that by a former FBI agent who was a friend of Mr. Dyles. Q. Who? A. Rich Conte. Q. Can you spell the last name? A. C-o-n-t-e. Q. And this person is a friend of Mr. Dyles? A. He'd known Mr. Dyles, he had been involved in the prosecution of Mr. Dyles, and he told us about his criminal history.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	MR. CALFO: I need to interject. I'm going to object to the form, but also, you interrupted the witness while he was answering the question of how was corroborated, and you didn't let him finish. MS. JONES: Yeah. We'll get to all of it. I just wanted MR. CALFO: I just want to make sure it's clear that he didn't finish. A. Yeah, I do have more things to stay about that. MS. JONES: Yeah, we'll get to all of that. I just wanted to ask about that one A. It was part of the investigation in the sense that we felt Bellevue had failed to self-report the amount of money, we felt that when they did their initial self-report in, I think it was June 2015, they only put in the report Coach Goncharoff's side of the story, and they only told the committee that Goncharoff said it was $300. And we were of the view and I think KingCo agreed with us that it was significant the amount of money and that they should have been told that, by the way, the father said he was paid on two occasions with money	he changed his story and said, "I was being sarcastic. It really was a loan." So we found that the payment was corroborated and we found that the fact that Cerrillo said it was a gift and changed his story corroborated what we heard from Mr. Dyles. Q. Did you know Ahmad Dyles prior to this investigation? A. The first time I met him was in September of 2015. I did not know him. Q. Did you know about any of his criminal history? A. I learned about it at about that time. Q. How did you know about his criminal history? A. I was told that by a former FBI agent who was a friend of Mr. Dyles. Q. Who? A. Rich Conte. Q. Can you spell the last name? A. C-o-n-t-e. Q. And this person is a friend of Mr. Dyles? A. He'd known Mr. Dyles, he had been involved in the prosecution of Mr. Dyles, and he told us about his criminal

Page 43

Page 45

Atkinson-Baker Court Reporters www.depo.com

1 Presented to the Court by the foreman of the 2 Grand Jury in open Court, in the presence of the Grand Jury and FILED in The U.S. 3 DISTRICT COURT at Seattle, Washington. 4 5 BRUCE RIPKIN. 6 7 8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON 9 AT SEATTLE 10 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, 11 04 0523P Plaintiff, 12 v. 13 AHMAD ABDUL $ALAAM AS-$ADIQ a/k/a CANNON RICO DYLES a/k/a 14 RICO DYLES CANNON, 15 Defendant. NUSA NENEE NENEEN BAND PEREEN EN IND 16 04-CR-00523-INDI The Grand Jury charges that: 17 COUNT ONE 18 (Felon in Possession of a Firearm) 19 On or about November 18, 2004, at Federal Way, within the Western District of 20 Washington, AHMAD ABDUL SALAAM AS-SADIQ a/k/a CANNON RICO DYLES a/k/a 21 22 RICO DYLES CANNON, having been convicted of crimes punishable by imprisonment for a term exceeding one year in the Superior Court of the State of Washington, Pierce County, that 23 24 is: 1. Unlawful Possession of a Controlled Substance, cause number 88-1-02070-3; on 25 August 2, 1988, in the name of CANNON RICO DYLES; and 26 2. 27 Attempted Possession of a Controlled Substance, cause number 88-1-03731-2, January 4, 1989, in the name of RICO DYLES CANNON; 28

1	did knowingly possess in and affecting commerce a firearm, to wit: one Astra, model A-
2	100, 9mm semiautomatic pistol, which had been shipped and transported in interstate
3	commerce.
4	All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 922(g)(1) and 924(a)(2).
5	A TRUE BILL:
6	DATED: / PECEMBEL 2004
7	Signature of Foreperson redacted pursuant to the policy of the Judicial Conference of
8	the United States.
9
10
11	Leggrey C. Pullivo
12	United States Attorney
13	Carl 770A
14	CARL BLACKSTONE
15	Assistant United States Attorney
16	Color State of the
17	Assistant United States Attorney
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28	